

FITCHBURG STATE UNIVERSITY

FAVE – FITCHBURG ANTI-VIOLENCE EDUCATION

Fitchburg Anti-Violence Education (FAVE) is a campus-wide effort to prevent interpersonal and relationship violence, and sexual assault, and to support individuals affected by violence. In collaboration with various University departments and offices, FAVE seeks to create a safe and respectful community for all by providing educational programming and training opportunities and promoting support services for survivors.

FAVE Website

Note: Fitchburg State University strongly encourages any person that experiences or witnesses an act of violence to come forward and/or report the incident(s). Should a person choose to report an incident, he/she should do so to the Dean of Student and Academic Life, Campus Police, Human Resources, and/or an appropriate supervisor.